

Privacy Policy

Kirriemuir Photography Club takes your privacy seriously. This privacy policy sets out how, why and for how long we will use your personal data. It also explains your legal rights as a data subject and how to exercise them.

Information we collect and store

When you register as a member of the club or renew your annual membership, we will ask you for the following personal information:

Contact details – Your Name, Email Address and Phone Number.

By providing your e-mail address you agree to us contacting you by e-mail. This is our primary method of contact.

Why we need your personal information

We need to collect your personal information for the purposes of the administration of the club, for communication purposes. We will not pass your personal information on to any third party.

How we protect your personal information

Your personal information is accessed by our Secretary, Treasurer, and President only for the purposes set out above. Paper membership / consent forms are securely stored once details have been transferred to a single document stored in a password-protected format.

How long we keep your personal information

We only keep your personal information for as long as necessary to provide you with membership services. Unless you ask us not to, we will review and delete your personal information where you have not renewed your membership with us for one year.

You have a right to:

- Change your communication preferences or restrict the processing of your personal data for specific purposes.
- Request that we correct your personal data if you believe it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Request that we delete your personal information.
- Access the personal data that we hold about you
